DETAILED ACTION

Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-14 are, drawn to a polynucleotide, a vector and a host cell, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1
 - II. Claims 15-16, are, drawn to a process for producing a polypeptide, classified in class, 435 subclass 69.1.
 - III. Claims 17-21 and 30, are, drawn to a polypeptide, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
 - IV. Claims 22-25 are, drawn to a method for prophylactic or therapeutic treatment of disease, classified in class 514, subclass 44.
 - V. Claims 26 and 31 are, drawn to a method of diagnosis infection, classified in class 424, subclass 134.1.
 - VI. Claims 27 and 32 are, drawn to a method of detecting an antibody, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.
 - VII. Claims 28 and 33 are, drawn to a method of preparing a pharmaceutical composition, classified in class 424, subclass 93.1.
 - VIII. Claims 29 and 34 are, drawn to a diagnostic kit, classified in class 424, subclass 190.1.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Claims of groups I, III and VIII are drawn to structurally and functionally distinct compositions.

Claims of groups II, IV, V, VI and VII are drawn distinct methods which differ in the method objectives, method steps and materials used.

Inventions I and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the composition of group I can be used in PCR assays.

Inventions III and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the composition of group III can be used in immunoassays.

Inventions I and VII are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the composition of group I can be used in PCR assays.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and the search required for one group is not required for the other group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1645

4. Applicants are reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Election

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

If applicants elect group I, then there are additional election of species.

Please choose one of the polynucleotides from claims 1 or 2.

Please choose one of the RNA or DNA from claims 3-6.

If applicants elect group III, then there is additional election of species.

Please choose one of the polypeptides from claims 17-20.

6. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 2, 17-20 and 26 are generic claims.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
